Telfer Public Sector Leaders Program

Testimonials

“One of the best courses I have ever taken. I leave this course with the confidence and tools to be a more effective leader and to move ahead in my career. It was also a great networking opportunity.”

- Transport Canada

“A highly relevant program effective for taking the theory and making it real and putting it in practice.”

- Privy Council Office

“The faculty at Telfer guided us through a program that allowed for our differential learning needs. It was invigorating to be a part of a classroom program that was so learner centered.”

- Canadian Food Inspection Agency

“This was perhaps the most rewarding and beneficial learning experiences I have ever had. The caliber of intervention was first rate and I felt privileged and fortunate to be part of such a wonderful group of public servants.”

- Canadian Revenue Agency

“The program was very helpful to my learning of linking strategic and operational work to genuine self-development as a path to embracing the vision of department and realizing its goals.”

- Western Economic Diversification

“This course gave me self-awareness and some very practical tools that I can apply to my leadership journey. I would very much recommend it.”

- Department of National Defence

“This program was invaluable to me at this point in my career, and will be of great value to others at the same inflection point. The course has a good balance of personal insights as well as practical models / tools to take back to work. I feel I am a better leader because of this course”

“An invaluable, unique, opportunity to learn with and from other leaders in the public services. There are significant opportunities to gain, new insights, tools and opportunities to enhance performance.”

- Canada Revenue Agency

“The Public Service Leaders Program offered by the Telfer School of Management at the University of Ottawa is a compact and comprehensive overview of all key aspects of leadership and management development. The program balances theory and practice wonderfully, with an emphasis on applying all that was covered in the workplace for years to come. Outstanding value!”
